BROADWAY DELEGATION SEES NEW YORK SAIL

Robertson Theatrical Company, Maggie Teyte and Pavlo Casals Among Her Passengers.

With a gay delegation from Broadway to see her off, the steamship New York of the American line sailed for Liverpool at noon to-day with 2,700 tons of general cargo aboard, including 1,013 bars of silver. She carried no munitions of war. There were 460 cabin passengers and 265 in the steerage. Of the cabin passengers one hundred were Americans.

The Broadway delegation waved farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Ian Robert-farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Ian Robertson and twenty-seven members of the Sir Johnston Forbee-Robertson company; Maggie Teyte, the tiny grand opera singer, and Pavlo Casals, the Spanish 'cellist. Sir Johnston and his wife will not sail until next week.

Three Japanese naval officers of high rank, Hekashire Sata, K. Sayegusa and Chiwaka Kamlya, were aboard, bound for England "on a visit," they said, and for purposes of study.

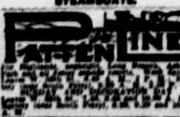

Among the other passengers were
